The first document will display. If there is more than one page to the document, the check mark will not be highlighted until you have scrolled down or, read the last page. Upon doing so, you will then be able to sign off on the document.

To Exit the viewer, choose on of the following options:

- 1) Skip – If you decide to sign off on the document at a later date.
- 2) Decline – If you feel that this document was mistakenly placed in your file.
- 3) Red Exit Door – This feature is the most widely utilized if you want to exit the screen.
